

Country Level

Survey Level

Note: The plots illustrate the differences published and currently available data. The left plot shows the country-level correlation of democracy-support proportion between the data used for publication and corrected data. The right plot presents the survey-level differentials in terms of the proportion of democracy support. Source: Claassen 2020 and self-collected data